Since 2015, the Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra has filled the Queen City with excitement during the month of August. Our eclectic musical repertoire ranges from the Baroque to The Beatles. Summermusik, our month-long festival, presents productions that delight people of all ages with spectacular collaborations. Live music performed by the CCO combines with solo vocalists, choruses, dancers, puppeteers, painters, videographers, and other artistic forces to create thrilling moments of beauty and fantasy.

3 UNIQUE CONCERT EXPERIENCES

Hear the full chamber orchestra at four mainstage performances at SCPA’s Corbett Theater. Free Prelude Talks provide fascinating introduction to each program. Complimentary post-concert receptions give artists and audience members a chance to share in the experience together.

(A LITTLE) AFTERNOON MUSIK
These Sunday afternoon concerts take place at different venues across the area. Such intimate gatherings get patrons close to the musicians in a casual atmosphere. Artistically linked to the previous evening’s SCPA performance, these concerts allow an opportunity for guests to delve deeper into the music and invite a close-up encounter with the weekend’s featured artist!

CHAMBER CRAWL
We host Chamber Crawl evenings at a variety of bars and restaurants across Greater Cincinnati. These interactive experiences highlight local culinary as well as musical talent. Musicians and patrons relax and have fun together with programs curated by our own CCO musicians.

ROSEMARY & MARK SCHLACHTER
The Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra is proud to present the second season under the baton of Maestro Eckart Preu. A native of Erfurt, Germany, Maestro Preu trained at the prestigious Hochschule für Musik in Weimar before continuing his studies in Paris and the United States. Eckart brings an innovative programming style to the CCO.

“Eckart Preu is one of the most impressive talents in the group of younger conductors working today in America. He is deeply musical, he cares about orchestras, and he conducts with elegance, style, and intensity.”

HENRY FOGEL
former President of the League of American Orchestras

“[Eckart is a] fiery conductor [with a] kinetic style.”

THE NEW YORK TIMES

“[Summermusik] has been a crescendo of inventive programs and fine performances under each candidate. Audiences have increased each week. And just when you thought the orchestra couldn’t play much better, Preu elevated the performance level to new heights.”
